12 all available remedies within the national governing body for correcting defi-

14 remedies would have resulted in unnecessary delay.

15 (2) Within 30 days after a complaint is filed, the corporation shall de-

41 with sections 220522, 220524, and 220525 of this title. If, at the end of the period allowed by the corporation, the national governing body has not complied with those sections, the corporation shall revoke the recognition of the national governing body.

The corporation shall publish notice of the time and place of the hearing in a regular issue of its principal publication at least 30 days, but not more than 60 days, before the date of the hearing. In the hearing, the applicant and the national governing body shall be given a reasonable opportunity to present evidence supporting their positions.

(e) STANDARDS FOR GRANTING APPLICATIONS.—In the hearing, the applicant must establish by a preponderance of the evidence that—

(1) it meets the criteria for recognition as a national governing body under section 220522 of this title; and

(g) REVOCATION OF RECOGNITION AFTER PROBATION.—If the national governing body does not comply with sections 220522, 220524, and 220525 of this title within the probationary period prescribed under subsection (f)(4) of this section, the corporation shall revoke the recognition of the national governing body and either—

(b) PROCEDURE.—(1) A demand for arbitration must be submitted within 30 days after the determination of the corporation.

(2) On receipt of a demand for arbitration, the Association shall serve notice on the parties to the arbitration and on the corporation, and shall immediately proceed with arbitration according to the commercial rules of the Association in effect at the time the demand is filed, except that—

(4) Each party may be represented by counsel or by any other authorized representative at the arbitration proceeding.

(5) The parties may offer any evidence they desire and shall produce any additional evidence the arbitrators believe is necessary to an understanding and determination of the dispute. The arbitrators shall be the sole judges of the relevancy and materiality of the evidence offered. Conformity to legal rules of evidence is not necessary.

(c) SETTLEMENT.—The arbitrators may settle a dispute arising under this chapter before making a final award, if agreed to by the parties and achieved in a manner not inconsistent with the constitution and bylaws of the corporation.

(d) BINDING NATURE OF DECISION.—Final decision of the arbitrators is binding on the parties if the award is not inconsistent with the constitution and bylaws of the corporation.

(e) REOPENING HEARINGS.—(1) At any time before a final decision is made, the hearings may be reopened by the arbitrators on their own motion or on the motion of a party.

(2) If the reopening is based on the motion of a party, and if the reopening would result in the arbitrators' decision being delayed beyond the specific period agreed to at the beginning of the arbitration proceedings, all parties to the decision must agree to reopen the hearings.

 41 States at the headquarters of the United Nations.

40 trances are to the east and west or to the east when entrances are to the

1 north and south. If there are entrances in more than two directions, the
 2 union should be to the east.

3 “§ 8. Respect for flag

4 “No disrespect should be shown to the flag of the United States of
 5 America; the flag should not be dipped to any person or thing. Regimental
 6 colors, State flags, and organization or institutional flags are to be dipped
 7 as a mark of honor.

8 “(a) The flag should never be displayed with the union down, except
 9 as a signal of dire distress in instances of extreme danger to life or prop-
 10 erty.

11 “(b) The flag should never touch anything beneath it, such as the 12 ground, the floor, water, or merchandise.

13 “(c) The flag should never be carried flat or horizontally, but always 14 aloft and free.

15 “(d) The flag should never be used as wearing apparel, bedding, or 16 drapery. It should never be festooned, drawn back, nor up, in folds, but al-
 17 ways allowed to fall free. Bunting of blue, white, and red, always arranged
 18 with the blue above, the white in the middle, and the red below, should be 19 used for covering a speaker’s desk, draping the front of the platform, and 20 for decoration in general.

21 “(e) The flag should never be fastened, displayed, used, or stored in 22 such a manner as to permit it to be easily torn, soiled, or damaged in any 23 way.

24 “(f) The flag should never be used as a covering for a ceiling.

25 “(g) The flag should never have placed upon it, nor on any part of it,
 26 nor attached to it any mark, insignia, letter, word, figure, design, picture,
 27 or drawing of any nature.

28 “(h) The flag should never be used as a receptacle for receiving, hold-
 29 ing, carrying, or delivering anything.

30 “(i) The flag should never be used for advertising purposes in any
 31 manner whatsoever. It should not be embroidered on such articles as cush-
 32 ions or handkerchiefs and the like, printed or otherwise impressed on paper
 33 napkins or boxes or anything that is designed for temporary use and dis-
 34 card. Advertising signs should not be fastened to a staff or halyard from 35 which the flag is flown.

36 “(j) No part of the flag should ever be used as a costume or athletic 37 uniform. However, a flag patch may be affixed to the uniform of military 38 personnel, firemen, policemen, and members of patriotic organizations. The 39 flag represents a living country and is itself considered a living thing.
 40 Therefore, the lapel flag pin being a replica, should be worn on the left lapel
 41 near the heart.

“(k) The flag, when it is in such condition that it is no longer a fitting emblem for display, should be destroyed in a dignified way, preferably by burning.

“§ 9. Conduct during hoisting, lowering or passing of flag

“During the ceremony of hoisting or lowering the flag or when the flag is passing in a parade or in review, all persons present except those in uniform should face the flag and stand at attention with the right hand over the heart. Those present in uniform should render the military salute. When not in uniform, men should remove their headdress with their right hand and hold it at the left shoulder, the hand being over the heart. Aliens should stand at attention. The salute to the flag in a moving column should be rendered at the moment the flag passes.

“§ 10. Modification of rules and customs by President

“Any rule or custom pertaining to the display of the flag of the United States of America, set forth herein, may be altered, modified, or repealed, or additional rules with respect thereto may be prescribed, by the Commander in Chief of the Armed Forces of the United States, whenever he deems it to be appropriate or desirable; and any such alteration or additional rule shall be set forth in a proclamation.”.

(b) The analysis of chapter 1 of title 4, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end the following new items:

- “4. Pledge of allegiance to the flag; manner of delivery.
- “5. Display and use of flag by civilians; codification of rules and customs; definition.
- “6. Time and occasions for display.
- “7. Position and manner of display.
- “8. Respect for flag.
- “9. Conduct during hoisting, lowering or passing of flag.
- “10. Modification of rules and customs by President.”.

SEC. 5. LEGISLATIVE PURPOSE AND CONSTRUCTION.

(a) NO SUBSTANTIVE CHANGE.—Sections 1 and 2 of this Act restate, without substantive change, laws enacted before August 16, 1997, that were replaced by those sections. Those sections may not be construed as making a substantive change in the laws replaced. Laws enacted after August 15, 1997, that are inconsistent with this Act supersede this Act to the extent of the inconsistency.

(b) REFERENCES.—A reference to a law replaced by section 1 or 2 of this Act, including a reference in a regulation, order, or other law, is deemed to refer to the corresponding provision enacted by this Act.

(c) CONTINUING EFFECT.—An order, rule, or regulation in effect under a law replaced by section 1 or 2 of this Act continues in effect under the corresponding provision enacted by this Act until repealed, amended, or superseded.

(d) ACTIONS AND OFFENSES UNDER PRIOR LAW.—An action taken or an offense committed under a law replaced by section 1 or 2 of this Act is deemed to have been taken or committed under the corresponding provision enacted by this Act.

(e) INFERENCES.—An inference of a legislative construction is not to be drawn by reason of the location in the United States Code of a provision enacted by this Act or by reason of a caption or catch line of the provision.

(f) SEVERABILITY.—If a provision enacted by this Act is held invalid, all valid provisions that are severable from the invalid provision remain in effect. If a provision enacted by this Act is held invalid in any of its applications, the provision remains valid for all valid applications that are severable from any of the invalid applications.

1 SEC. 6. REPEALS.

2 (a) INFERENCES OF REPEAL.—The repeal of a law by this Act may

4 in effect before its repeal.

5 (b) REPEALER SCHEDULE.—The laws specified in the following sched-
6 ule are repealed, except for rights and duties that matured, penalties that 7 were incurred, and proceedings that were begun before the date of enact-
